

AN AUTOMATIC SYSTEM OF COUNTING OBJECTS IN URBAN TRAFFIC

Summary – This article presents the analysis and implementation of algorithms for detecting and counting objects in video surveillance systems. Article also presents the choice of development tools. Presented models of the algorithm was implemented and tested in Microsoft Visual Studio 2010 environment with .NET Framework 3.5 library using video processing techniques.