

CONTROL SYSTEM OF TRICYCLE MOBILE ROBOT

Summary – This article is devoted to mobile robotics and relates to a control system of a three-wheeled mobile robot for exploration and inspection purposes. The control system has been made for an algorithm that includes two operation modes: manual mode, in which the robot is remotely controlled by an operator and autonomous mode, where the robot moves independently and has to reach a target avoiding obstacles on the way.