

CONTENT MANAGEMENT SYSTEMS CMS

Summary: Shaping the content and presentation of the website managed by CMS is via easy-to-use user interface, usually in the form of web pages containing complex forms and modules. The purpose of the system is a comprehensive administration web portal: publish news and articles, the organization structure of the service, user account management. Modifying and adding new material to the site is via easy-to-use user interface, usually in the form of web pages.

Keywords: Content Management Systems CMS, Webside Design, WordPress, Joomla