

REPORT MANAGEMENT SYSTEM

Summary – The paper presents method of administering large report management system realized for Polish division of Ruukki concern. This solution based on MS SQL Server and VB platforms. Dynamic reports generation is obtained due to Crystal Reports technology. Main task of this application is authorization control for reports generation and monitoring (audit) individual system operator activity. Application has been accustomed according to requirements of big company Ruukki Poland.