

SECURITY POLITIC FOR COMPUTERS SYSTEMS

Summary – All organizations have to have strictly determined destination and working strategy. From this parts appears destinations and strategy of information and IT system security. Not enough strict definition of security system (policy) carry on to situation that administration based on intuition and fuzzy rules. This state carry on to not reasonable enlarge security system and costs of it implementation and use. It lead firms to danger of data and information lose. Main idea of this paper is presentation of most important information's and features of correctly built security system. The most important steps in the creation of security system due to ENSI norms are pointed.