

TAX CALCULATOR. VB APPLICATION

Summary – In article presents the main ideas of Engineering thesis. The main objective was the creation of the acting application allowing calculation of due taxes and the demonstration of large possibilities of modern language BASIC. It has been shown the amenities and tools which distinguished this application from other known solutions (cooperation with calculator, database). It has been demonstrated that Visual Basic is a modern object oriented language, as good as languages C # or Delphi.